Borderland Tourists

The Borderland route was a busy thoroughfare yesterday as parties from all over the county were in and out of Tombstone, enjoying the beautiful day and the excellent road.

On Pleasure trip

Court reporter John Walker and wife motored to Benson and back on pleasure bent yesterday.

Neat Improvement

Doctor Hughart recently bought the two-story frame house and lot adjoining his residence from P. B. Warnekror, and the house having been removed, the Doctor has constructed a neat garage and other buildings on the new purchase. The reconstruction makes him a very nice place.

Returns Today

Prof. F. T. Thomas of Hereford returned to Tombstone this morning.
Mr. Thomas and Mr. Harmon of the Tombstone Tailoring Co. will play for the big dance at Gage Hall tonight.

New Trainmen On Local Branch

Brakeman Reeves is on the local branch run in the absence of Brakeman Fields for a few days, while Engineer Osteen is pulling the throttle for a few days, during the absence of Engineer Struthers.

In From Bisbee

In their special car Prof. F. F. Douglas Walker Douglas, W. H. Brophy, J. F.
Ross and Dr. E. Grebe, arrived in Tombstone this morning. The gentlemen remained in Tombstone during the whole forenoon, during which time Walter Douglas became a citizen of the United States. During their brief stay here the distinguished gentlemen made a brief visit to the T. C. M. properties on the hill, only as a matter of interest, however and not of an official nature. They left this afternoon for Bisbee.

Motor to Courtland

Paul B. Warnekror and C. L. Cummings motored over to Gleason and Courtland yesterday on a business mission returning home in the afternoon.

In From Bisbee

Attorney S. K. Williams of Bisbee was among the visiting attorneys in the city today on business, leaving in the afternoon.

Returns From Benson

County Attorney W. G. Gilmore returned home yesterday afternoon from a business trip to Benson.

Recovering From Burns

Mrs. Isaac Tracy, who was quite severely burned with gasoline last week is reported as quickly recovering from the burns. Mrs. Tracy was pouring a small quantity of gasoline into some boiling water, which she wished to soften for washing purposes, when the oil exploded in some manner, scalding her considerably. While very painfully burned about the face and hands, the many friends of the estimable lady will be pleased to learn that under the care of Dr. Hughart, she is recovering rapidly.

Returns From Florence

Probation Officer Howe returned home yesterday from Florence where he went to take some prisoners convicted from Cochise.

Returns From Phoenix

County School Superintendent D. B.
Hutchins returned home yesterday from Phoenix, where he went on business.

Many Visitors In

Allen Street was quite a scene of action today being crowded with autos which came over from Bibee and Douglas with passengers who came over to secure their citizenship papers. A great many of the applicants came over on the train, and returned home this afternoon.

Leaves for Los Angeles.

Mr. A. H. Gardner left yesterday via Benson for Los Angeles and San Diego on a business mission, after which he will visit with Mrs. Gardner and daughter, Helen Arlington, for a couple of weeks, and returning, will stop at Yuma, Phoenix and Tucson on some matters connected with the Borderland route.
